The Teacher: Oriana Ferraguzzi

Let me tell you about me. I have a Master's degree in teaching Italian to Non-native Speakers from University for Foreigners in Perugia, Italy. While finishing my thesis, I worked as an Italian Modern Language Fellow at Susquehanna University (PA) in the academic year 2010/2011. From November 2015 to February 2019 I moved to South Africa, where I was a teacher of Italian and German for two years at Società Dante Alighieri in Pietermaritzburg and then I became the President.

I really enjoy traveling and teaching around the world (when no Coronavirus is around), I love to play guitar and sing, I love listening to music and I read a lot of books!

I have also a big family... but for now it's enough, otherwise you are not going to ask me those things in Italian during our lessons!

In fact, I would like you to speak as much as possible in Italian during our lessons
